

March 30th, 2019

January 23-26, 2020 is the meeting date – Is the flock ready to fly? It's not too early to be thinking about Palm Springs Winter Break, 2020. Registration is now open, with a flyer attached.

This year's guest instructor is ROY VERDONK from the Netherlands. We know you'll love his quirky style, along with his fun-loving attitude. His talents abound, with dances catering to all levels. A guy who can tell jokes in 3 languages will surely fit in with the flock.

Joining Roy in 2020 is: Bracken Ellis (teaching and DJing), Gerard Murphy, Anna Maria Prach, Michael Barr, and Michele Burton.

Did we say Gerard Murphy? It's been a few years since Gerard has seen the Palm Springs sun (or maybe the sun at all, being from Nova Scotia – lol). He'll be joining us as a special guest instructor, teaching a couple classes.

The motel information is a work in progress ☹️. We are continuing to work with Quality Inn because of its affordability but are seeking other possible options. Information is coming soon.

Please contact us if you have any questions. Send flyers and registration forms to your friends. If you teach classes and would like some flyers, let us know.

Hope you will consider joining us in 2020. Let's Flamingle!!!
